

CAMBRIDGE INTERNATIONAL LAW JOURNAL

Navigating a Multipolar World: Challenges to the Post-WWII Status Quo of International Law

TICKET SALES NOW OPEN!

14th Annual Conference: 28–29 April 2025

University of Cambridge, Faculty of Law,
Cambridge, United Kingdom

Exciting news! Join this year's Cambridge International Law Journal 14th Annual Conference on 28–29 April 2025 in the Faculty of Law of the University of Cambridge in Cambridge the United Kingdom, on the topic: 'Navigating a Multipolar World: Challenges to the Post-WWII Status Quo of International Law'.

Explore seven dynamic panels that delve into the pressing challenges and issues facing international law today:

1. Reconstructing the international legal order in the 21st century;
2. The role of international law in achieving climate justice;
3. Challenges to international criminal law post-2025 - Rethinking, reframing, reforming;
4. International human rights law: quo vadis?;
5. The growing role of international economic law in a globalised world;
6. Armed conflict and challenges to international peace and security in a multipolar world; and
7. The international law of tomorrow: legal innovation and developing fields.

Immerse yourself in thought-provoking discussions with distinguished keynotes, announced in due course together with the conference brochure.

In-person ticket sales close on April 15, 2025. Virtual tickets available until April 20, 2025. Secure your spot now by clicking the link below to grab your ticket: <https://forms.gle/qFDwt3AiENJfur2H6>

Kevin Zou

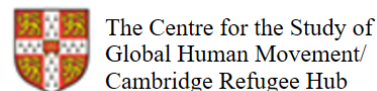

Conference Convenor

Renatus Otto Franz Derler and Marno Swart

Editors-in-Chief

Conference assistants: Mariam Aboelmagd, Indumugi Chandarvairavan, Pratyusha Ivaturi, Cecile Schuster, Ramayni Sood, and Paavni Jain

The 14th Annual Conference of the CILJ is grateful to the following institutions and firms for their generous support:

Our Gold Sponsors:

FRESHFIELDS

Arnold & Porter

